

INVESTIGATOR

The Travel Industry Council of Ontario (TICO) has a permanent position for an Investigator.

TICO is a non-profit organization mandated by the Ontario Government to administer the Ontario Travel Industry Act, 2002 (the Act) and Ontario Regulation 26/05 (the Regulation). You will be accountable for investigations from inception to completion. You will investigate persons who contravene the Act by acting as a travel agent/wholesaler without registration. You will also investigate Ontario registrants who breached the Act and the Regulation such as failing to maintain trust accounting. You will gather evidence, interview witnesses, prepare court briefs, draft and execute search warrants, prepare and lay charges and testify in court.

The successful candidate will possess a minimum of 5 years' experience in fraud investigation and law enforcement. You possess an excellent working knowledge of judicial/courtroom procedures, the Canada (Ontario) Evidence Act and the Provincial Offences Act. Knowledge of the Act is an asset. You possess well-developed research and analytical skills with exposure to forensic accounting. You have experience preparing well written, detailed reports and are an organized team player with excellent communication and negotiation skills.

Travel throughout Ontario is a requirement of the position and knowledge of MS Office is necessary.
